■ Trip Overview

This 3-day Paris itinerary is designed for a fun, budget-conscious trip from Tel Aviv, focusing on nightlife and Parisian charm, while acknowledging the tight 5000 ILS budget. Flights and accommodation will consume the majority of the budget, requiring careful spending on food, activities, and local transport. As Paris does not have a traditional beach, the itinerary incorporates relaxing spots by the Seine River and beautiful parks to fulfill the desire for open-air leisure and a 'fun' vibe. Expect a lively, fast-paced trip with a focus on experiencing Paris's vibrant atmosphere.

Your Itinerary

Day 1	Arrival & Montmartre Magic
	■ Morning: Depart from Ben Gurion Airport (TLV) to Paris Charles de Gaulle (CDG). ■ Afternoon: Arrive in Paris, take RER B train to the city center, check into your budget-friendly accommodation (e.g., a hostel or small hotel in a central, well-connected area like the Latin Quarter or Marais). ■ Late Afternoon: Head to Montmartre. Explore the charming streets, visit the Sacré-Cœur Basilica for panoramic city views. ■ Evening: Enjoy dinner in Montmartre, perhaps a crêpe or a casual bistro meal. Experience the artistic atmosphere and find a lively bar for your first taste of Parisian nightlife.

Day 2

Iconic Sights & Seine-side Relaxation

- Morning: Start your day with a visit to the Louvre Museum's exterior and the Tuileries Garden. Enjoy a leisurely stroll, perhaps with a coffee and a croissant, treating it as your relaxing 'beach' spot by the city's green heart.
- Mid-day: Walk down the Champs-Élysées, admire the luxury shops (window shopping!), and reach the Arc de Triomphe. Consider climbing to the top for more stunning views (budget permitting, otherwise enjoy from below).
- Afternoon: Explore the area around the Seine River. Find a nice spot to sit by the river, perhaps near Pont Neuf or Île de la Cité, to relax and people-watch. This offers a serene, open-air experience.
- Evening: Dinner in a lively neighborhood like Le Marais or Bastille. Dive into Paris's vibrant nightlife scene, exploring various bars, pubs, or even a small club.

Day 3

Latin Quarter Charm & Departure

- Morning: Visit the exterior of Notre Dame Cathedral (currently under renovation but still impressive from the outside). Wander through the historic Latin Quarter, known for its student vibe, bookshops, and charming cafes.
- Mid-day: Enjoy a final Parisian meal, perhaps a delicious falafel in the Marais or a classic croque monsieur. Do some last-minute souvenir shopping if desired.
- Afternoon: Depending on your flight schedule, you might have time for a final stroll along the Seine or a visit to a local market. Head back to Charles de Gaulle Airport (CDG) for your departure back to Tel Aviv (TLV).
